Jordan recognized the Republic of Kosovo

Prishtinë - July 08, 2009

The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan recognized the Republic of Kosovo as a sovereign and independent country. The news has officially been communicated to Minister of Foreign Affairs of Kosovo, H.E. Mr. Skender Hyseni by H. E. Ambassador Mohammed F. Al-Allaf Permanent Representative of Jordan to the United Nations.

During the telephone conversation, Ambassador Mohammed F. Al-Allaf informed Minister Hyseni that the Government of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has taken the decision for the recognition of the Independence of Kosovo.

On his part, Minister Hyseni expressed multitude thanks for His Majesty King Abdullah II, whose will was materialized with the recognition of Kosovo's Independence by the government of Jordan.

Thanking the Ambassador Mohammed F. Al-Allaf for his personal engagement for the recognition of Kosovo, Minister Hyseni expressed his appreciation and gratitude to the people of Jordan, its government and his homologue, H.E. Mr. Naser Joudah.

Jordan is the 61st state that has recognized Kosovo.
